What people are saying about these presentations:

"The material was very engaging and presented well. You can tell your office has really embraced and worked well through the pandemic because this virtual presentation was phenomenal!"

"The format of the online training was excellent and kept me engaged the whole time. A great balance of lecture, review, videos, and discussion. This training was better than many of the in-person basic trainings I have attended in the past."

"Overall, the whole presentation was interesting and useful. As an intern with zero experience in this material, the presenters made this training easy to understand."
